Jul 24, 2020 - Transgender (Trans) male/male: Someone whose gender identity is ... -igor-azov-boy-azov-baikal-kdv-film-krivon-boys-baikal-films-azov-fi. html - In this video I want to tell you about being a transgender (Trans) male/male. A transgender person is someone whose gender identity is different from his or her biological sex, both at birth and throughout life. In the video I will tell the story of how I became transgender (Trans). It was in 2003, I was 15 years old at the time. I was already in college and at that time I was an only child in my family. Everyone around me was acting normal, and I was a little unaccustomed. My parents worked very hard and I was on my own, I had friends not only at my school, but also at the school for children with mental retardation. And how bored and lonely I was when I came home. My mother told me that it was actually great and I should be glad that I was different, that I had my own life where I could do my own thing. She kept telling me that I should be glad that I had my own life and that I was different. And I was glad. And indeed, I had my own life, and I did rejoice. But at the same time I was like everyone else and I didn't want to be like everyone else. And I wanted to be different, not like everybody else. That's how weird it was. And I didn't understand why I was different, because I was like everybody else. And then I thought that the thing was that I was different on the outside and that I should not be like everybody else on the outside, and then I became like everybody else on the inside. But that didn't help either. Then I became like everyone else on the inside and like everyone else on the outside at the same time and started thinking like everyone else. And of course that didn't help either. Then I tried to learn to think like everyone else and act like everyone else and feel like everyone else. But it didn't help either, and then I thought that I hadn't lived inside for such a long time that I had forgotten how to be myself. But I had never lived inside before, so I didn't know how it could be. Then I thought that now I was living inside and that I had forgotten how to be myself. I was still living in an alien world, but now I was empty inside. And that world was foreign to me. Then I began to think that it wasn't me living inside at all, but some other person I had once known. Then I realized that I didn't remember anything. I actually remembered everything very well. I knew very well how to live my life. I was good at it. But some other person in my head, when I wanted to live like him, would suddenly ask me, "Do you care how I live? " Yes, and I, like everyone else, don't care. I just know that there are some people who just want to live the way they want to live, not the right way or the best way for others. Why do I care? Because we are all one. And if one person wants to live the way he wants, it turns out that he wants to hurt other people who don't want to. Only when one of us wants to live someone else's life and not our own, do we care. That is, when someone lives someone else's life for you.
